

records of the minor. Finding that the privacy interest outweighs any public interest and that no other effective method exists for protecting those records, such briefs may be filed under seal along with any materials attached to those briefs. Finally, respective counsel have shown good reasons for allowing 35 page briefs by both sides.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the joint Motion to Seal (#111) is ALLOWED and the parties are allowed to file their briefs under seal, and plaintiff's Motion for Extension of Page Limit (#110) is GRANTED, and the page limit is reset to 35 pages for both sides.
